(d) whether Government purpose to make them also viable ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (DR. ABRAR AHMED) :

(a) to (d) In the Budget Speech, it was mentioned that while making capital contribution to the banks during the year 1993-94, banks will be required to make specific commitments that their future management practices would ensure a high level of portfolio quality so that their existing problems do not recur. There is no proposal to restrict capital contribution to viable and profit-making public sector banks.

Arrears to Employees of Regional Rural Banks

912. SHRI ASHIS SEN : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that National Industrial Tribunal gave an Award revising wage structure of Regional Rural Bank employees for their benefit;

(b) if so, whether the employees have been paid the consequential arrears arising out of the revision of wages since they became eligible for it; and

(c) if not, since when the matter is pending and by when the payments will be made ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (DR. ABRAR AHMED) : (a) to (c) Government had appointed a National Industrial Tribunal (NIT) to consider the demands of the Regional Rural Bank employees for parity in respect of salary structure with the employees of sponsor banks. The Tribunal in its Award, inter-alia, held that officers and other employees of RRBs be entitled to pay scales, allowances and other benefits on par with the officers and other employees of comparble level in corresponding posts of sponser bnks with effect from 1-9-1987. The employees of RRBs are being paid revised salary with effect from January, 1991. The payment of arrears to the employees of RRBs involves an expenditure of around Rs. 225 crores. As RRBs does not have funds of this order, the payment of arrears has not been made by them.
